

My name is Eduardo, I'm 27 years old, and I'm the son of Débora Cristina from PIB João Pessoa, a mother who prays.

My mother converted, and I found it very boring. And soon I saw my mother praying always. I asked myself:

- Why is my mother always on her knees now?

She always asked me to go with her to church, but I didn't want to, I even got upset with her insistence. But one day, a friend asked me to go to a Cursillo, and I accepted. It was the best experience I've had in my life. So from there I understood the greatness of Jesus' love, and why my mother prayed and sought God.

But I didn't settle. In 2018 I started a relationship that lasted until April 2019, and I had a great disappointment, I was very devastated, it was then that I returned to the arms of God, and I felt his great love, I accepted Jesus Christ as my only Lord and Savior, and I understood that I have a mother who prays for me, and who made and still makes all the difference in my life.

Mothers, do not give up praying for your children.
